⁽¹⁾ The Adviser is contractually committed to waive fees and/or reimburse the Fund's expenses such that net investment income will not be less than zero until May 1, 2018. After that date, there is no assurance that the Adviser will continue to cap expenses. The Adviser may recapture from the assets of the Fund any of the operating expenses it has reimbursed (but not any of the management fees which it has waived) until the end of the third calendar year after the end of the calendar year in which such reimbursement occurs, subject to certain limitations. This recapture could negatively affect the Fund's future yield.

Example. This Example is intended to help you compare the cost of investing in the Fund with the cost of investing in other mutual funds. The Example assumes that you invest $10,000 in the Fund for the time periods indicated and then redeem all of your shares at the end of those periods. The Example also assumes that your investment has a 5% return each year and the Fund's operating expenses remain the same. Although your actual costs may be higher or lower, based on these assumptions, your costs would be:

	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Class A, B, C and Y shares	$72	$224	$390	$871

Principal Investment Strategies

The Fund is a money market fund that seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share. There can be no guarantee that the Fund will be successful in maintaining a $1.00 share price.

Davis Government Money Market Fund invests exclusively in U.S. Treasury securities, U.S. Government agency securities, U.S. Government agency mortgage securities (collectively "U.S. Government Securities") and repurchase agreements collateralized by U.S. Government Securities. As a government money market fund, the Fund normally invests at least 99.5% of its total assets in U.S. Government Securities, repurchase agreements collateralized by cash and/or U.S. Government Securities, and cash. The Fund seeks to maintain liquidity and preserve capital by carefully monitoring the maturity of its investments. The Fund's portfolio maintains a dollar-weighted average maturity of sixty days or less.

Principal Risks of Investing in Davis Government Money Market Fund

The principal risks of investing in the Fund are:

- Changes in Debt Rating Risk. If a rating agency gives a fixed income security or its issuer a low rating, the value of the security will decline because investors will demand a higher rate of return.
- Credit Risk. The issuer of a fixed income security (potentially even the U.S. Government) may be unable to make timely payments of interest and principal.
- Fees and Expenses Risk. The Fund may not earn enough through income to offset the operating expenses of the Fund. All mutual funds incur operating fees and expenses. Fees and expenses reduce the return that a shareholder may earn by investing in a fund, even when a fund has favorable performance. A low-return environment, or a bear market, increases the risk that a shareholder may lose money.
- Inflation Risk. Also called purchasing power risk, this is the chance that the cash flows from an investment won't be worth as much in the future because of changes in purchasing power due to inflation.
- Interest Rate Risk. Interest rate increases can cause the price of a debt security to decrease.
- Repurchase Agreement Risk. The repurchase obligation of the seller is, in effect, secured by the underlying securities. In the event of a bankruptcy or other default of a seller of a repurchase agreement, the Fund could experience both delays in liquidating the underlying securities and losses.
- U.S. Government Securities Risk. Generally, government securities, like other debt securities, are interest rate sensitive. During periods of falling interest rates, the values of debt securities held by the Fund generally rise. Conversely, during periods of rising interest rates, the values of such securities generally decline. Changes by recognized rating services in their ratings of debt securities and changes in the ability of an issuer to make payments of interest and principal also will affect the value of these investments.
- Variable Current Income Risk. The income that the Fund pays to investors is not stable.

You could lose money by investing in the Fund. Although the Fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1.00 per share, it cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in the Fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The Fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the Fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the Fund at any time.
